DIED DEAD!*Colonel John Henry Kincaid Loses a Ripsnorting Equine

It will pain the friends of Colonel John Henry Kincaid to learn that yesterday he lost, one of his incomparable Sixth Ward string of thoroughbreds.

He had just perfected a trade with Colonel Rees Wallingford for the splendid ex-stallion Crowbait, 4-11-44, dam Transparent, sired by Hatrack, and was starting for the paddock when, without a moment's time to prepare for the sad event, Crowbait wobbled and dropped dead in his tracks.

The skin was removed in a basket and the bones and shoes in a wheelbarrow.

It is thought the animal died from lack of oats—and breath.

PUBLIC SPEAKING*Hon. John T. Bashaw at the Court-house Last Evening

It has aptly been stated that this is a campaign of apathy. It appears that the people are content with the present condition of affairs, and that it is a foregone conclusion that Roosevelt will be re-elected by an overwhelmingly majority, so what is the use of attending public meetings.

However the crowd at the Courthouse last night was a fair-sized one.

In well chosen words Hon. W. D. Cochran introduced the speaker of the evening, Hon. J. T. Bashaw of Louisville, who presented the issues of the day in a plain, conversational manner.

He stated facts and truths easily understood by his audience, which was in full accord with all he said.

He spoke of the necessity of electing Judge Bennett and supporting the ticket in a hearty manner.

His speech was a timely one and did much good for the Republican candidates.

PROPOSED TRACTION*Augusta Will Put Up $20,000 For Line to Germantown

As announced exclusively in yesterday's LEDGER, a meeting was held at the Town Hall in Germantown last afternoon to consider a traction line connecting that place with Augusta.

This was the outgrowth of the meeting held at the same place a week or so ago, which was attended by several gentlemen from this city, and at which preliminary steps were taken toward a line from Maysville to Germantown, via Washington.

That Augusta is awake to the importance of the enterprise was demonstrated at yesterday's meeting, when a strong delegation from that city pledged that Augusta would put up $20,000 for the road, and that Chicago capitalists were ready to advance 50% of the cost of construction.

While a large majority of the people of Germantown prefer a line to Maysville, they cannot be expected to decline the offer of the Augustans, unless Maysville does equally as well in the way of financial aid.

Therefore, Business Men of Maysville, "it's up to you."

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It's most too soon to fool the voters into electing another Freetrade Congress and President. Too many of them remember the closed shops, the idle times, the bread riots and the free soup-houses of the Cleveland reign.

Much stress is laid on the fact that an officer of the Kentucky militia has written to the Secretary of War protesting against the restoration of the Canteen at Army Posts. Nothing strange about that. Every thoroughbred Kentuckian, according to tradition, is opposed to the curtailment of the drink habit.

The fellow who worked this off came pretty near sizing up the situation—

KLOCKZEWSKI carries the Polish crowd,
FLEDJA takes care of the Finn;
Of WOBOCZ the Magyars are very proud
And he can entice them in.
KLUFFOFF controls each Russian chap—
He has attained some note—
But where is the man who cares a rap
For the durn American vote?

YONSON's the one for the sturdy Swede,
MICZWICZ holds fast the Hun;
YUSSUF this year the Turks will lead,
Just as he's always done.
TLOGO will vouch for the valiant Jap,
Greatly on him they dote;
But where is the man who cares a rap
For the durn American vote?

Stanch by MURPHY the Celt will stand,
MURPHY's the b'y for Pat;
And KOCH will capture the German band,
Make no mistake on that.
All of the English will follow KNAPP,
On that just bet your coat;
But where is the man who cares a rap
For the durn American vote?

THE LEDGER heartily indorses Mr. BRYAN on one proposition, anyway. In a speech out in Indiana a few days ago he said—

"I am so Democratic that I would like to see Postmasters elected by the people. I am tired of seeing the Federal Government come into a town and appoint as Postmaster a man whom the people do not want. I am tired seeing Federal patronage used to build up political machines."

The last Legislature—for purely political purposes, and directly in opposition to the specific requirements of the Constitution of Kentucky, which each and every member had sworn to obey,—passed a law creating a new county out of portions of Carter, Lewis and Elliott; they called the new baby BECKHAM, in honor of the Governor; and Governor BECKHAM,—for political purposes, and to transmit his name to posterity some more,—approved the unconstitutional Act, at the same time vetoing another bill creating the county of Thorne, named in honor of Lieutenant-Governor BILL THORNE, whom BECKHAM doesn't sit up o' nights to love; and then a suit was filed in the Carter Circuit Court to test the constitutionality of the Beckham County Act; and then Judge KINNER of that Court—for some more political purposes—decided that the rape of Carter and Lewis county territory, and even a few miles over in Ohio, was constitutional; and then the Democratic Court of Appeals—having more regard for the Constitution than it had for even the extension of partisan domain—declared with some emphasis that the attempted rape was unconstitutional; and once more the "imperialists" appeared before Judge KINNER with a new survey and another demand for the new county; and Judge KINNER has just seen a big search-light, and now says the Act is unconstitutional! So Beckham county is finally knocked out and forever—with the people to pay $1,302.89 for the last survey and a whole lot of lawyers' fees.

MAKE MR. OLNEY STOP

"Let Real Democrats Do the Talking"—"Plutocratic Has Beens Make Republican Votes."

A New York Democratic Newspaper Prints a Caustic Editorial. Quickly Stuffed.

[From the New York Journal, Dem.]

Take Olney off the stump. Democrats of his type make no votes for the party. Last night in his speech at Cooper Union the former attorney general and later secretary of state under President Cleveland offered a characteristic keynote.

In his argument against imperialism he spoke of "our needless scrimmage with Spain over Cuba," and subsequently referred to "that development of jingoism and militarism which brought on the scrap with Spain."

That is a keynote to which the country will not respond in the way expected by Mr. Olney. It is not Americanism, and certainly it is not Democracy.

The war for the liberation of Cuba had the heart of the people behind it. It was chivalric, unselfish and glorious. Limited and careful gentlemen of the Olney type found themselves incapable of rising to the height of the popular enthusiasm, but whether in or out of office they were swept along with the tide of noble sympathy for an oppressed people. History will record that the United States in expelling Spain from the new world reached a moral eminence quite unparalleled in the action of nations.

We owed nothing to Spain. Her occupation of Cuba had been a continuous crime, as was her whole career in this hemisphere. We had been patient too long. The Virginian Infamy should have been the signal for her eviction from this side of the globe. The culmination of her atrocities was the blowing up of the Maine riding at anchor at what was supposed to be a friendly port.

And after that unexampled outrage Olney speaks of our "needless" war with Spain!

No American who is as broad as his country can look back upon the Spanish war without a thrill of pride.

Mr. Olney speaks for a kind of Democrats who are infinitely harmful to the Democratic party. They seem to be without capacity for entering into the feelings of the people, sharing their patriotic ardors or sympathizing with their national aspirations. He is an able man, no doubt, an excellent lawyer and means well, but he damages Democracy and the candidacy of Judge Parker when he puts himself forward as a spokesman at once of "little Americanism" and the party which is historically that of expansion.

A great people are not to be cribbed, cabled and confined within the cold blooded and petty limitations of the Olney conception of national duty and destiny. The votes of young men, of men of spirit, cannot be won by sneers at one of the loftiest deeds in the nation's life.

Democrats, real Democrats, are not to be deprived of their share in the glory of freeing Cuba. It is to the everlasting honor of the party that through its representatives in congress and in the press—the Evening Journal foremost in the fight—it forced a reluctant administration to declare the war. Had Cleveland been in the White House and Olney in the cabinet we may be quite sure that the heroes of the Maine would have perished in vain and Cuba continued to be a Spanish shambles at our door.

The Democracy has no quarrel with any man who took part as a soldier or civilian in rescuing Cuba, and it is not to be tolerated that the party should be placed in such a position. Theodore Roosevelt, as one who took part in that brief conflict, has reason as a candidate to congratulate himself upon Mr. Olney's presence on the stump. Judge Parker and his managers ought to lose no time in revising the list of campaign speakers and eliminating from it the Olneys, the Cleverlands and all other discredited plutocratic, narrow minded and hard hearted Democrats, so called, who are responsible for the apathy among the people of which complaint is made at Democratic headquarters.

How can the workingmen, for example, be expected to grow enthusiastic in a canvass which numbers among its conspicuous orators the attorney general who discovered the sacredness of a Pullman car and a president who ordered troops into Illinois against the protest of her governor for the purpose of crushing a strike?

Olney has spoken for Parker, and it is announced that Cleveland is also to mount the platform. If Judge Parker understands the American public as well as we think he does he will put his foot down and avert that crowning calamity.

Let real Democrats do the talking from now on.

Election Day is Coming.

[From the New York Press.] Do honest Republicans approve the appointment of Mr. Cortelyou as chairman of the national Republican committee?—Times.

Well, they will tell you their answer on election day, and it will be so emphatic that it will ring in your ears for the rest of your natural life.

POINTS TO BE SEEN.

Those who are insisting that David B. Hill is the Democratic party's Old Man of the Sea are kindly requested to bear in mind that the party does not need one in this campaign. It is its own burden.—Boston Journal.

An Esopus boy swallowed a Parker button the other day and suffered intensely until it was removed. There is at least one person in this country who now knows exactly how Mr. Bryan must feel.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

The average number of failures during the last Democratic administration was about 14,000 annually. Since 1897, with a large increase in the number of business concerns, the average has been between 10,000 and 11,000 annually.—Vallejo Chronicle.

ADVICE TO FIRST VOTERS

A Young Man Who Values His First Vote "Next to His Life" Wants Help in Deciding.

The Answer Gives Six Good Reasons Why He Should Be a Republican and Stay One.

The Question.

23 Water Street,
Newburg, N. Y., Sept. 23, 1904.

Dear Sir—I write hoping you will find time to answer and enlighten me as to how I should vote this coming election. It will be my first vote for president, and I value it next to my life, for it means either a full or empty dinner pail to me. I have tried hard to find some sound conviction by reading the daily journals, but apparently they are striving to see which one can lie most sordidly in their criticisms of party and candidate; therefore I appeal to you for some sound reasons why I should vote the Republican ticket, and wish to add that with all my strength and mind I endorse your president in maintaining the army and navy and the progressive government we have enjoyed for the past eight years. Hoping the best candidate will win, I remain sincerely,

JOSEPH L. COLEMAN.

The Answer.

Oct. 6, 1904.

My Dear Sir—Your favor of recent date stating that at the coming election you will cast your first presidential vote and asking for some good reasons why you should vote the Republican ticket has been referred to me for answer.

The reasons are many and strong why you should "start right" by voting the Republican ticket, yet it is impossible within the limits of an ordinary letter to state even briefly all of them. Here are a few of them:

First.—You should vote the Republican ticket because the record of that party for the fifty years of its existence has been so uniformly honorable and consistent that it is today a crown of glory to every man to say that he was one of its founders and has continued to act with it to this day. It is a privilege to any young man to come into such an inheritance. No other party has existed in our country for that length of time but its honorable members have at some time or other been obliged to admit that its principles were vicious and its candidates unworthy of their support.

Second.—You should vote the Republican ticket because that party was organized to make this the land of free men, free soil and free speech. Having accomplished its purpose, it is the party best fitted to preserve them.

Third.—You should vote the Republican ticket because the party is opposed to free trade and free silver and has consistently stood for protection to both labor and capital.

Fourth.—You should vote the Republican ticket because a man is known by the company he keeps, and no man is in bad company who is a member of the party of Fremont and Lincoln and Grant and McKinley and Roosevelt. All good men are not Republicans, nor are all Republicans good men, but the vast majority of Republicans are men of good repute. Look about in your own community and see whether this it not true.

Fifth.—You should vote the Republican ticket because its candidates now, as in the past, are honest, able and courageous men. As has been said, what more could any mother and father ask than that their son should follow the same high ideals as Theodore Roosevelt has followed and live the same honorable, loyal, pure life as his has been?

Visitors

Returning From the World's Fair

All tell us that they saw nothing there to match the beauty and antiquity of the lovely piano upon exhibition at John I. Winter's Store, Maysville, Ky. THIS SUPERB MASTERPIECE OF ANCIENT HANDCRAFT is beginning to attract the attention of curio dealers in our largest cities. Articles are being written in leading trade journals. Applications have been received from both Chicago and New York for exhibition purposes. This specimen is about to become famous, and you will wish that you had seen it. We hope that you will call and see this masterpiece before it is too late.

River News

The Addie T. will be up today for Vanceburg. The river is rising in places, due to the light rain that has fallen.

Captain W. E. Rowe is to take command of the packet Kanawha.

There has been a rise of more than one foot in the Pittsburgh rivers, caused by the rains of the past few days. The streams are still rising, and should there be a continuance of the precipitation at the headwaters of the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers a large stage will be reached within two weeks. While it will take considerable more water before coal can be sent South, an additional foot in the Monongahela will permit the bringing down of the millions of bushels of coal now lying in the upper pools.

Some Reasonable Advice. It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy on hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all Druggists.
